

the building and about its aims.—The Advertiser has a most excellent character from all his employers. He has been with the master in the country at the building of forty cottages, and other buildings near two years, and was in London, at repairing his northern months. For further particulars as to character, ability and every information that be had, and the model may be seen by any master builder, direct to JOHN DIXON, at 11, Upper St. J. King-st. 80th-square, London.

border is the characteristic style of the Elizabethan period; and other embellishments. The illumination and ornamentation designed and executed by HENRY NOEL HUMPHREYS, Illuminator of "Parables of our Lord."—A Record of the Black Prince.
From the Press of
London: LONGMAN, BROWN, GREEN, and LONGMANS

GREEN'S IMPROVED REGISTER WINDCARD is the simplest, cheapest, and most effective article for the CURE OF SMOKY CHIMNEYS caused by the wind. It is fixed securely on the common chimney-pot, but is applicable to all chimneys. It has no moving and stone &  WINDOWS, OAKLE CROSSES, &c. IN STONE.

Also every description of Ecclesiastical and Domestic Building
ORGAN CASES OF EVERY DESCRIPTION

ORGAN CASES OF EVERY DESCRIPTION